ITEM	DISCUSSION	DECISION/ACTION
Roll Call	Roll Call completed.
Emergency Action	None.
Approval of Minutes	Tabled.
Correspondence	None.
Chair's Report	A. Budget Cuts The Board of Supervisors will conduct its budget meeting later this day at 2:00 PM. B. Behavioral Health There will be a lot of contract right-sizing for Community Based Organizations (CBO) over the next three years. Chair McInnis is concerned about whether there will be program closures.
Director's Report	No report given.
Overview of the Substance Use Continuum of Care	A. Drug Medi-Cal Waiver Goals for Drug Medi-Cal Waiver: to improve access to services and health outcomes by formally transforming the system to a continuum of care and to improve quality of care via managed care plan. Providers use the American Society of Addiction (ASAM) assessment and provide individualized care to patients to better serve their needs. Grievance and appeals processes have been made available.

ITEM	DISCUSSION	DECISION/ACTION
	B. Overview of Substance Use Continuum of Care Many clients are homeless and/or have mental illness. Waiver now pays for case management services and individual counseling. Crisis residentials not meeting network adequacy on timeliness, especially due to COVID-19. Substance Use Helpline is targeted for Medi-Cal beneficiaries but will still serve regardless. FY18-19 shows that the Asian Pacific Islander and Latinx communities are not being adequately served. Latinx community faces access issues. C. COVID-19 SUD Operations Outpatient services are limiting in-person services and using telehealth and telephone services. Operation Comfort and Safer Ground programs are running. Social isolation is very difficult for those in recovery; SUD is working on a public information campaign to ensure people have the resources to reach out. Residentials have limited patients via physical distancing. Medicine and treatment dosages have increased to allow clients to come in-person less frequently. D. Questions: Dual Diagnosis Treatment All programs are required to be co-occurring capable. Alameda County is developing a curriculum for co-occurring care training.	C. Nathan Hobbs will send the EQRO report to Chair McInnis for distribution.
Future Agenda Items	A. Presentation on Older Adult Programs B. Update on IOP at Fairmont	A. Kristin Boer will reach out to Older Adult for a presentation in July or August. B. Chair McInnis will reach out to the IOP for an update.
Committee Comment	Board of Supervisors meeting occasionally overlaps with the Adult Committee meeting, which hurts attendance for the committee.
Public Comment	None.
Adjournment	Adjourned at 1:18 PM
