

All psychiatrists, mental health staff, consumers, & families

Transforming the System: A Practical Approach to Implementing Wellness & Recovery Practices

Friday, October 27, 2006 • 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Summit Health Education Center

400 Hawthorne Avenue, Oakland

(Between Telegraph & Broadway, near 32nd Street.
Check-in & Continental Breakfast begin at 8:30 am)

Mark Ragins, M.D.

Medical Director & Staff Psychiatrist
The Village Integrated Service Agency, Long Beach, CA

Objectives:

- Participants will be able to describe the four stages of Wellness & Recovery.
- Participants will identify at least one way that Wellness & Recovery principles are already being implemented in their lives and/or current work environments.
- Participants will be able to identify at least one additional step that can be taken to further integrate the four stages of Wellness & Recovery into their lives and/or practice strategies.
- Participants will be able to identify ethical and risk management issues related to Wellness & Recovery practices.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

Please Note: Space is limited, and attendance must be restricted to 150 participants.

Priority will be given to those on the waiting list from the February 1st

Mark Ragins Training and those who have not attended before.

Registration will be on a "First-come, First-served" basis.

RSVP to Alameda County Vocational Program at (510) 383-1600

Registration deadline is October 13th.

Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.

Street parking and a parking garage on Summit St. are available.

Attendees will be responsible for their own parking fees.

Near MacArthur BART Station and Telegraph Avenue bus line.

This is an activity offered by Behavioral Health Care Services, a CMA accredited provider. Physicians attending this course may report up to 5.5* hours of Category 1 credit toward the California Medical Association's Certificate in Continuing Medical Education and the American Medical Association's Physician's Recognition Award.

*Actual number of hours which comply with the criteria for a Category 1 activity.

Six units of CEU credit will be offered for MFTs, LCSWs, and RNs, as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences, Provider Number PCE 307, and California Board of Registered Nurses, BRN Provider Number 12040.