ACBH Presents:
Black Mental Health Stigma: Tools & Strategies for Engaging Black Communities in Healing

Friday, February 28, 2020 ♦ 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM ♦
ACBH 2000 Embarcadero, Ste 400 ♦ Oakland, CA 94606 ♦
Gail Steele Room ♦

Description: In this training, participants will review the historical roots of stigma in Black communities and learn strategies and tools to reframe mental health, connect black communities to care, and reimagine healing and wellness within a healing justice framework.

By the end of this training, participants will have increased their capacity to:

• Name and identify common symptomology and framing of mental health challenges in Black communities.
• Challenge and provide accurate information on common myths on medication, psychology and mental health in Black communities.
• Apply a healing justice framework to their approach to mental health in Black communities.

Lunch will be provided for this event
