Subject: BHCS Deputy Director Announcement

I am pleased to announce that James Wagner, LMFT/LPCC has been selected as the Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services Deputy Director. James brings with him a wealth of both internal and external experience in behavioral health management and has demonstrated this leadership as interim deputy director for the past months. We thank James for his willingness to step into the interim role and welcome him to this appointment as deputy director. Please join me in congratulating James and in recognition of his professional commitment to Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services.
