

A Symposium on

The Adult Child of Alcoholics Syndrome and its Relationship to Stress and Addictions in African American Communities

Hosted by the Community Advisory Board for Alameda County's Black Women's Media Project

Join us for a day of interactive presentations and discussion on:

The Adult Child of Alcoholics Syndrome in African American Communities

The Physiology of Stress and its Impact on Addiction

Creating Culturally Based Transformative Opportunities in Your Programs

Wednesday, June 4, 2008

8:30 am – 3:00 pm

Pre-registration required by June 1, 2008

Alameda County Behavioral Health Care Services
2000 Embarcadero, Suite 400
Oakland, CA 94606

Speakers

Frank Staggers, Jr., M.D.
Addiction Specialist

Melvin Atkins
Tai Chi Master, Originator of Soul Chi

Colette Winlock, M.A.
Cultural Anthropology and Social Transformation

Taj Johns, Ph.D.
Transformative Learning Educator

James Armstrong
Recovery Advocate

Who Should Attend: Alcohol and Other Drug Providers, Recovery Advocates, Social Workers, Prevention Specialists and Interested Parties.

Registration for this Symposium is limited. Lunch will be provided. To pre-register contact (510) 549-5990.

The Black Women's Media Project is a project of the Health and Human Resource Education Center.