

People Power Equals Change: Lessons From A Hyperlocal Community Assessment of Opioid Use and Community Well-Being

October 30, 2020 ♦ 10:00AM – 12:00PM ♦ LIVE WEBINAR

Facilitated by: Ivelyse Andino, Founder of Radical Health

Ivelyse Andino is an Afro-Latina health equity innovator born and raised in The Bronx. She is the founder and CEO of Radical Health and a Commissioner on the New York City Commission on Gender Equity. As the founder of Radical Health — the first Latina-owned and operated Benefit Corp in NYC — she has sought to combine her expertise in healthcare and her passion as a community organizer. Through Radical Health, Ivelyse is committed to the task of transforming healthcare by facilitating health literacy and self-advocacy, as well as forging a relationship between meaningful face-to-face conversations with cutting-edge technology.

Kaniya T. Sann, is the Head of Operations at Radical Health. And is a proud Black Femme, originally from the San Francisco Bay Area. Kaniya has passion for racial equity, health equity, and liberation. Prior to joining Radical Health, Kaniya worked as public health practitioner with a focus on community level health in Chicago where she enjoyed creating culturally appropriate health services for youth and had the pleasure of helping local community partners redesign their programming models to be more culturally representative of the communities they work in.

Training Description:

An interactive workshop to address the most salient factors that shape the mental health and healing of diverse Latinx people and communities.

This workshop presents a culturally responsive practice-based, community-defined model that can ultimately be used to inform and/or improve clinical SUD/MH guidelines and practices for mental health and SUD professionals working within Latinx communities. For those who would like to receive three (3) continuing education units, the webinar will include 1 hr. pre-webinar reading in addition to the 2 hours live webinar session for a total of (3) continuing education hours.

In order to produce more culturally affirming outcomes, attendees will:

1. Participant will be able to list at 3 ways the social determinants of health impacts their specific communities;
2. Participants will be able to identify 2 community-based solutions for addressing SUD/MH systemic health inequities;
3. Participants will be able to demonstrate 2 ways they can apply best practices for convening community members in order to collect meaningful information for engaging affected populations in community treatment, including community-defined healing practices;
4. Participants will be able to explore 2 culturally appropriate community-based methods to assist their patients with MH/ SUD

IN ORDER TO RECEIVE A TOTAL OF THREE CEUs, PARTICIPANTS MUST COMPLETE THE READING AND ACTIVITIES PRIOR TO THE WEBINAR. THE READING WILL BE PART OF A POST-TEST EXAM
