Meeting ID: 867 6334 7045

Passcode: 751948

Topic Description: Transgender and Non-binary youth

Objectives: LGBTQ Gender Identity

Lillian Rivera is a cisgender Latinx woman, who grew up challenging gender rules. She finds great inspiration by the young people in our society who can imagine the endless possibilities of gender.

As Director of Family Programming, she partners with families as they traverse a gender journey in support of their children, while creating community.

Cameron Duvall is a licensed Marriage & Family Therapist (LMFT 93542) with 12 years of direct experience serving the LGBTQ population in the San Francisco Bay Area. As a member of the community, she has owned and operated a private practice since 2012 where she specializes in Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation in youth, young adults, families, and parental support systems. Cammie Has also been a part of Marin County's LGBTQ center (formally Spectrum, now the Spahr Center) for nearly 10 years as a youth group facilitator, and for the past 5 years she has facilitated parent support groups for those with gender expansive children.

Amy Saucier is a licensed marriage and family therapist and currently works for Alameda County Behavioral Healthcare Services in the Quality Assurance department as a Clinical Review Specialist Supervisor. Amy has been working for Alameda County for the last 3 years. Prior to working for the county, Amy worked with families involved with Child and Family Services as a social worker for 12 years. Amy is a licensed foster adopt parent and provides Resource Family Approval trainings for the Foster and Kinship program through Chabot College. Amy provides a variety of trainings in the community including LGBTQ+ domestic violence prevention, Sexual Orientation Gender Identity Expression (SOGIE), and cultural humility.
