

PRACTICUM/INTERNSHIP SUMMARY

As a community-based organization, CHAA believes health and wellness are a vital part of community development and social justice. CHAA partners with diverse API communities in an ongoing effort to reduce health disparities in a manner that honors and nurtures authentic leadership, with the promotion of community, family and consumer wellness, voice and choice.

CHAA's mission, vision and values are grounded in promoting wellness, recovery and resiliency through consumer-, family- and community driven services for all. CHAA is committed to providing the highest quality services in a culturally appropriate manner.

Interns at CHAA will receive weekly individual supervision (one hour/week) and group supervision (1.5-2.0 hours/week) provided by a licensed psychologist or licensed MFT. In addition, trainees will attend a weekly didactic seminar (1.5 hours/week), emphasizes professional development, integration of theories, and application of evidence-based models. The group supervision and didactic seminar include readings, presentations and discussions on a wide range of topics. These include clinical interventions, community resources/systems, youth development, and immigration issues to name a few.

Interns at CHAA will have the opportunity to provide individual therapy, group therapy, family therapy, case management, psychological assessment, and collateral work as indicated. These services are provided at school sites, in a traditional clinical setting, and various community settings including home visits when needed. Placements are available in Oakland (school-based and community-based), Richmond (school-based, juvenile justice, and AOD) and Antioch (school-based and community-based).
